This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

BOUND FEB 10 1910

LONDON: PRINTED BY WILLIAM NICOL, SHAKSPEARE PRESS, PALL MALL.

THIS second part of the Bibliotheca Grenvilliana was commenced in the year 1843, but was discontinued after fifty six pages were printed. The Trustees of the British Museum having resolved to finish the Catalogue, in order that the literary value of the whole of this noble bequest should be made public and also in accordance with the known wish of Mr. Grenville, we, at their request, completed the task.

Since the Publication of the first part in 1842, Mr. Grenville added to his collection many articles of great value and rarity, which, had he previously possessed them, would have been inserted in those volumes, the object of which was to give notices of his rarer books — they will now add to the interest of this volume. The list of Addenda is longer than it would otherwise have been, in consequence of acquisitions made since 1843. Those who are conversant with making alphabetical catalogues of large libraries will readily pardon the occasional erroneous entry of a book, an error which the progress of the printing discloses, and will only allow to be corrected by an insertion in the Addenda.

In order to render the whole catalogue more useful the Addenda of the first part is incorporated in the body of this; and the Publications of Clubs and Societies, noticed in the Preface, are now given in detail, arranged in the chronological order in which they made their appearance. An Index, upon the same plan as that in the first part, closes the Volume.

We cannot conclude better, than by adopting the last paragraph in Mr. Panizzi's report made to the Trustees in March last.

"During his lifetime, Mr. Grenville's Library was most liberally rendered accessible to any person, however humble his condition in life, who could shew the least reason for asking the loan of any of his precious volumes. By bequeathing the whole to the Country, Mr. Grenville has secured to literary men, even after his death, that assistance, so far as relates to the use of his books, which he so generously bestowed on them in every way during his long and dignified career—the career of a man of high birth, distinguished for uniting to a powerful and cultivated intellect a warm and benevolent heart."

Collation. The above title is in the centre of an elaborate wood cut, having the motto "Verbum Dei manet in æternũ" at the top, and a quotation from Proverbs VIII. 8. 9. at the bottom, with the initials E. R. at the sides. The Prologue commences on [A. ii.] and finishes on [A. iv.] on the verso of which, the Almanacke begins, and finishes on the verso of [B. iv.]. Then, An Analysis of the Contents of the Old and New Testaments, beginning "The whole Scripture of the Bible is divided into two Testaments, &c." two leaves, on the verso of the second there is a large wood cut, representing the Garden of Eden, with the Tree of Knowledge, Adam, Eve, &c. In various parts of this Engraving on Scrolls, are quaint rhymes. The Text commences on A, i and extends to B b b b b iv. on the recto of which, the book finishes, having an imprint (the same as on the title) at the bottom. T t iiii by mistake is printed T t t iiii; fol. 138. 139.—338. 224.—396. 369.

Besides the Engraved titles to the Old and the New Testaments, there are the following described wood cuts. The Prohibitions of Marriage, on the verso of fol. 49—The Royal Arms on the recto of 219—Map of the Holy Land, on the recto of 448—Chart of the Peregrinations of St. Paul, on the verso of 514.

The only Bibliographical notice of this Edition of the Bible that has been met with, is in the Bib. Sussex. vol. II. p. 324. The Text is the "Bishop's" Version with marginal notes and references. The Book appears to be on Large Paper, and is a beautiful specimen of Printing of the period, each chapter has an ornamented letter at the commencement, and there are type ornaments introduced in several places. The old binding has been restored, and it has the arms of Sir Christopher Hatton on the sides.

The Second edition. Of extreme rarity. This edition, though the second, may be considered as the first perfect Edition of the Canterbury Tales, it having been printed from a very superior manuscript from that which was employed for the first, which was very defective. Caxton points this out in a very interesting preface.

The only perfect copy known is in the Library of St. John's College, Oxford, the present, though imperfect, ranks second, being in very fine condition and without any deficiency at the beginning of the volume. Imperfect copies are in the British Museum, the Library of the Royal Society, and in the Collections of Lord Spencer and Lord Ashburnham.

The deficiencies in the present copy are as follows; i. VII., p. I., ii. I. to VI., A. I., B. I. and II., K. I. to VIII., L. III. and IV. these twenty-one leaves have been admirably supplied in fac-simile by Harris, who has likewise perfected Lord Spencer's copy.

CHRONICLE. The Croniclis of englonde with the frute of timis. Here ende the Croniclis of englonde with the frute of timis. Sanctus Albanus, (1483). Fol. Bl. L. B. M.

One of the very few books printed at the Abbey of St. Albans in the 15th Century. The value of the present copy is much increased by the results of an examination of all the other copies known, which prove to be more imperfect than was supposed. The one in the British Museum, quoted by Dibdin as perfect, has two leaves of the Text, the last leaf, and two leaves of the Table supplied by MS. The Bodleian has three copies all considerably imperfect. Lord Spencer's wants the last leaf of the Text and several leaves of the Table. Miss Currer's copy upon Vellum wants the last leaf of the Text and one other. The present, in beautiful condition, appears to be the only one hitherto known which contains all the text complete, but four leaves of the Table are supplied by Harris.

On the recto sign. K viii. is the following Note.

"Printerys of bokis wer this tyme mightely multeplied in maguncie and thurgh out the world, and thei began frist and ther held the craftis. And this time mony men began for to be more sotell in craftis and suyfter then ever they wer afore."

Collation. The book consists of 288 leaves, and commences with the Table which has seven leaves, the first three having signatures a, b, c, the other four none. The references in the Table are singular, as being to the various leaves of the respective signatures of each gathering. These gatherings are all in eights having signatures as follow, a to z, the sign for &, the figure 9, and A to K. Then one leaf, on the recto of which, the book ends, having below five lines of text and the notice of its termination, the Printer's Device in red, with "Sanctus Albanus" beneath it; a i. is blank.

— Here endyth this present cronycle of Englonde wyth the frute of tymes; compiled in a booke and also enprynted by one somtyme scole mayster of saynt Albons, on whoos soule god have mercy. And newely in the yere of our lord god MCCCCLXXXXVII. enprynted at Westmestre by Wynkyn de Worde. The descrypcyon of Englonde. Here foloweth a lytell treatyse the whiche treateth of the descrypcyon of this londe whiche of olde tyme was named Albion and after Brytayne. And now is called Englonde and speketh of the noblenesse and worthynesse of the same. (The description of Wales is in Verse.) Fynysshed and enprynted at Westmestre by me Wynkyn de Worde, MCCCCLXXXXVIII. Fol. Bl. L. B. M.

The King's copy in the British Museum, that at Lambeth and that at Althorp, are the only other copies known of this very rare first edition by Wynkyn de Worde. In the present copy the Chronicle is complete, but in the Description the leaf C. is supplied by Harris, in a remarkably correct imitation.

— A Cronycle of yeres from the begynnynge of the worlde, wherin ye shall fynde the names of all the kynges of Englande, of the Mayres and Shyryffes, of the cytie of London and brefelye of many notable actes done in, and syns the reygne of kyng Henry the fourth, newely augmented, and corrected: where vnto is added the lengthe, bredth, and compasse of Englande: with the nombre of parysshe churches, townes, byshoprykes, and shyres in the same: besydes Cyties and Castels; and also the wayes leadynge to the most notable places; and the dystaunce betwyxte the same. Anno 1544. Imprynted at London in Fletestrete, at the signe of the George by Wyllyam Myddylton, 16mo. Bl. L. R. M.

Collation. A and B in eights, C four. Twenty leaves.

This rare little volume is not mentioned in Dibdin's Ames, nor by Lowndes.

— A breuiat Cronicle contaynynge all the Kinges from brute to this daye, and manye notable actes gathered oute of diuers Cronicles from Willyam Conquerour vnto the yere of Christ a. 1552. Prynted at Canterbury in Saynt Paules parish, by John Mychell. 12mo. Bl. L. G. M.

Collation. A sheet of eight leaves with a signature, followed by A-N vii. in eights.

This edition differs from that by the same printer described in part I. p. 145. It has a small addition to the Text, and a Table of the principal Roads.

This "belle et recente nouvelle" containing an account of Columbus, Mexico, &c., is described by Ternaux, No. 22. as "de la plus grande rareté"

Mr. Panizzi's M.S. account of the book inserted in the volume is very interesting; he thinks Ternaux had not seen it, because he states that the account extends only to 1519, whereas it extends to 1522, in which year it was probably printed. At the end is the device of Augsbourg, a Pine cone, and no doubt it was printed there.

"This first edition of the Confession of Faith printed by John Scott, at Edinburgh, in 1561; he has printed it verbatim as it stands in the Record of Parliament, altering a little the spelling, which was then quite unsettled. He has even given the title and colophon as they stand in the Record of Parliament, with the exception of the blunder of the date in the Colophon, July in place of August; and with the exception of the Imprimatur which he necessarily added.

"It was also printed at Edinburgh in 1561 in 8vo. by Robert Lekpreuik, who took the liberty of altering both the Title and the Colophon.

"It was reprinted at London in 1561, by Rowland Hall in 8vo. from Lekpreuik's Edition, altered in the Title and Colophon as above noted."

"I believe the present very rare edition of 1509 to be the second edition, the first edition is of 1496, that of 1501, mentioned by Ebert, may well be questioned. This edition appears to have been copied by that of 1516 up to page 97, but after page 97 there follow 7 leaves of poetry not in the edition of 1516. However at page 91 of the edition of 1516 there is a 'Romance' which is not found in this." MS. note.

For the Edition of 1516, see Part I. p. 229.

Second edition, rare. Brunet in the new edition of his Manuel speaks of the first edition of this counterfeit Aldine as follows. "Edition regardée comme la première de ce célèbre pamphlet; malgré les noms de ville et d'imprimeur qu'elle porte, c'est évidemment une production des presses allemandes, probablement de celles de Cologne. L'Avant derniere lettre est datée de 1516." These observations equally apply to this edition. The first edition is in Gothic letter and has only 17 leaves. For a curious account of these letters see Ebert, p. 515.

HALS, William. The Complete History of Cornwall; Part II. being the Parochial History. n. d. Fol. G. M.

The first part of this volume was never printed and hence it has no general title page. The portion published consists of 160 pages folio, (signatures A—R 2) and contains an acconnt of seventy-two parishes in alphabetical arrangement, beginning with the Parish of "Advent," and ending at that of Helleston or Hellaston, of the description of which there are only six lines printed. The catchword on the last page is "That." The further progress of this work is said to have been stopped for want of encouragement on account of the abusive anecdotes and illiberal reflections which this second part contains relative to some of the principal families in the county. The author was Mr. William Hals, a gentleman of an ancient Devonshire family, residing during the greater part of his life at Tresawsen in the parish of Merther. About the year 1750 the publication was undertaken by Mr. Andrew Brice, then a printer at Truro, who afterwards removed to Exeter, where he published an useful geographical dictionary, and other books. Lysons's Cornwall, p. 2.

This volume is one of the scarcest in the Class of English Topography. It is not mentioned by Lowndes, nor is there any copy in the Bodleian, in the Libraries of Gough, Sir R. C. Hoare, or Miss Currer.

The only copy that has occurred for sale was Mr. Lysons's in 1820; but as that had the Author's MS. additions it cannot of course be considered as any criterion of price, that volume sold for £168.

This copy is of peculiar interest as it possesses the printed wrapper to the first number of the Work, on which is detailed in full the Author's intentions regarding the plan and progress of the undertaking.

Mr. Heber in a long note attached to this copy, which is the one mentioned by Brunet, says, "that the width between the lines and the peculiar manner of placing the accents over the words correspond exactly with the Chrysoloras, Hesiod, &c. printed in 1507—8, and distinguish it manifestly from the later productions of the same press, which no longer betray the rudeness of first attempts. The Mussæus by the same printer, supposed by Mr. Renouard to have been Gourmont's first effort in 1507 is evidently posterior and seems to belong to an intermediate period between the present and those of 1512, &c."

First complete Edition of Livy, and among the very rarest of First Editions. It was published e Cod. Antiq. Langobardicis litteris scripto, and carefully revised and collated by Carbachius with the printed editions, from which he found it to vary in two thousand places. The Preface of Erasmus is also curious, as, though a Dutchman, he claims for Mayence the honour of the invention of Printing. Neither Dibdin or Moss mention the sale of a single copy and the latter says of it "It is extremely rare and valuable and infinitely superior to all those editions which preceded it."

A present from Mr. Panizzi with an interesting letter on the subject of the Poem, and also in a bibliographical point of view; he concludes his letter as follows, "As you possess the very rare edition of Dante published by Tuppo at Naples, in the Colophon of which Tuppo alludes to the murder of Simon 'non sono molti anni,' and as the fact is said to have happened in 1475 according to all authorities, it may be of some interest to you to possess an uncommonly rare book, which may be of use in fixing at about 1480 the date of your Dante, the very year when Tuppo began to print separately from Reussinger."

REGICIDES. The Speeches and Prayers of some of the late King's Judges, &c. at the times of their death. Printed Anno Dom. 1660. 4to. G. M.

Dr. Bliss, in a letter inserted in the volume, says, "It is an extraordinary book tho' not a rare one, and its history is little known. The Speeches and Prayers of the Regicides, so far from being 'faithfully collected,' are all forgeries, published with the treasonable intention of holding up their conduct for imitation and putting into the mouths of the dying men apologies for their disloyalty. It is, in fact, an incitement to the discontented to do by Charles the second, as their predecessors had previously done by Charles the first."

Collation. Eighty-one leaves unpaged, signatures a-v. Eight preliminary leaves containing the Title and two Dedications. At the end is a very curious Map of Brazil. The acquisition of this very curious volume enables us to call attention to another Edition improperly catalogued under Homberg, in Part I. page 333, with the omission of the second part.

This is a most interesting account of a wild, naked, savage race of Cannibals and of the manners and customs of Tuppin Inbas, whose prisoner Hans Staden became and remained there many years till relieved by a French vessel.

This original Edition is so rare that Camus could neither procure it, nor learn where it was printed. The account is considered so authentic and interesting that a new Edition of it is preparing in Germany.

A translation of the entire Scriptures, made by One Man, performing the laborious duties of a parish clergyman in an infant Colony, into a barbarous and difficult Language, which he began to study at the age of forty-two years.
